Bios

Jesse Pritts is an environmental engineer with the US EPA's office of water. He is the lead on the Agency's Clean Water Act regulatory activities related to oil and gas extraction wastewater management under the effluent guidelines program. His presentation will cover several recent and ongoing projects related to this topic.

Jeffrey Speir is an Attorney-Adviser in the Office of Civil Enforcement of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance. His work focuses on judicial enforcement of Section 404 of the Clean Water Act and the Underground Injection Control Part of the Safe Drinking Water Act.

Jeff earned a B.A. from Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Prior to law school, he worked with an advocacy organization on the application of environmental regulations to the energy industry.

During law school, he gained experience with our Nation's regulatory, species protection, clean air, and clean water laws through participation in civil actions with non-governmental organizations. Jeff received a J.D. from Lewis & Clark Law School in Portland, Oregon, earning a certificate in Environmental and Natural Resources Law. He is a member of the Oregon State Bar.

Tim Elkins is an Environmental Scientist with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's Region 5 Water Enforcement and Compliance Assurance Branch (WECAB). After completing his graduate work in Environmental Science at the University of Michigan-Dearborn, Tim joined EPA Region 5 in January 2011.

Tim has worked with CWA/NPDES enforcement, Underground Injection Control (UIC) permitting, and currently leads a small team of inspectors and enforcement officers who implement UIC permits and federal regulations. The Team is primarily responsible for enforcing all UIC requirements in the State of Michigan.

Under Tim's leadership, the Team received the Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance's 2015 "Best Practice Award for Creative and Innovative Practices in the Enforcement and Compliance Assurance Program" for Region 5 UIC Targeting and Inspections. Tim has also been a member of the UIC National Technical Workgroup since 2013 (Chair: 2016-17), which aims to improve consistency amongst state and federal UIC programs.

Daniel Hoyt, Environmental Engineer:

Dan works in the Stationary Source Enforcement Branch in the Office of Civil Enforcement. He regularly coordinates with regional and state counterparts to perform Clean Air Act (CAA) inspections of stationary sources, including oil and gas facilities, and provides support for follow-up enforcement and compliance assurance activities.

Dan has worked for EPA since 2011 including three years in the Dallas Region 6 office, and worked for a local government environmental enforcement program in Houston, Texas prior to his career at EPA. Dan received his BS in Chemical Engineering from the University of Texas at Austin and his MS in Environmental Engineering from the University of Houston.

Chris Williams works in the Stationary Source Enforcement Branch in the Office of Civil Enforcement. He regularly coordinates with regional and state counterparts to perform Clean Air Act (CAA) inspections of stationary sources, including oil and gas facilities, and provides support for follow-up enforcement and compliance assurance activities.

Chris has worked for EPA since 2015 and worked as a consultant for industry prior to his career at EPA. Chris received his BS in Chemical Engineering from The Ohio State University.

Amy Hambrick works in the Sector Policy and Program Division of the Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards. She works on air regulation development for the oil and natural gas sector and the waste incineration sector. Amy has been with EPA since 2006 and has worked in both Regional and Headquarters offices over the years.
